Copyright and Fair Use

- Fair Use for Teaching & Research, UC Copyright
- Fair Use Checklist, Columbia University Libraries

Library Support for Instructors

Online library-licensed resources are available for use in your classes including eBooks, journals, and streaming media and films. Use the UC Library Search to see if we have access to what you need or ask the library to purchase it.

Course Reserves and Open Educational Resources (OER) are great options for reducing or eliminating student course costs. Contact the UCSC librarians to learn more and discuss your options.

Librarians and archivists are available to consult with faculty developing research assignments. Request teaching support to learn more.